

New Website URL for ACL TESTdirect® Portal

Beginning Tuesday, June 6, 2017, ACL Laboratories will be transitioning to a new web address for the TESTdirect® results portal. This change in web address will not affect functionality of TESTdirect® and the interface will remain the same.

Accessing TESTdirect® via acllaboratories.com

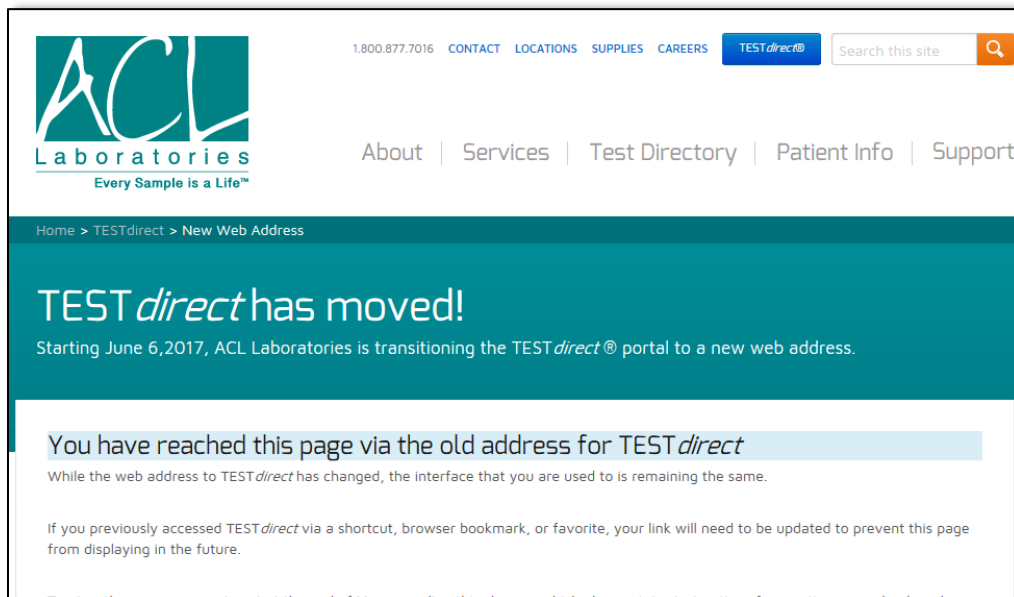

If you currently access TESTdirect® from theacllaboratories.com website, TESTdirect® link will be updated by ACL, and you will be directed to the new address automatically.

Accessing TESTdirect® via a browser bookmark or shortcut

If you currently use a bookmark from within your web browser, or a shortcut to the TESTdirect® website from your desktop, you will need to update them.

Beginning June 6, 2017, any bookmarks and/or shortcuts that reference the old address will have a message displayed indicating that the address has changed.

Browser specific instructions for adding a new bookmark

To create a bookmark for the new TESTdirect® address, first open <https://www.testdirect.org> in your browser.

Once the page has loaded, press the appropriate keyboard shortcut for your browser listed below. You may rename the bookmark as you wish, then click Done. To remove an old bookmark that utilizes the old address, you can simply right click on the bookmark to be deleted, and select Delete.
