We are providing this information to help you make informed decisions about your laboratory services and answer basic questions you may have regarding payment for these services.

ACL Laboratories, part of Advocate Health, is one of the top 10 largest health care system laboratories in the U.S. with two central laboratories located in Rosemont, Illinois and West Allis, Wisconsin.

It is important that you are aware that ACL will bill your insurance directly for any specimen collection and testing fees performed by ACL Laboratories.
